The Acropolis restoration works respect the values which we attribute to the monuments as cultural assets. Let's learn about these values!

Artistic values

The monuments of the Acropolis have always inspired global admiration for architecture, sculpture and constructional perfection.

Historical values

1912

1933

The Acropolis monuments comprise evidence of history . They are a testament not only of the period they were constructed, but of all periods following.

Functional values

The Acropolis as a cultural asset of worldwide fame, receives thousands of visitors daily.

Environmental values

The Acropolis and its Museum viewed from the south, as elements of Attica's built environment.

Emotional values

The Greek flag on the Acropolis connects its monuments with the feelings of Greeks for their country.
